ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

RANGE OF SERVICES

INFINITY GUARD FORCE SDN BHD (IGF) has extensive experience in delivering security services on a nationwide basis and provides thousands of man hour guard services per month for multiple customers. This includes protecting theft sensitive products across many industry sectors, including electronics, computers, software, fashion products, tobacco, alcohol, and pharmaceuticals, education further more.

Static Guards (Local/Nepali)

Uniformed Armed & Unarmed Guarding Services – our armed and unarmed security personnel have only one mission in common, that is to protect our customers and their assets, and maintain security as well as safety in the assigned area.

Prior to hiring the personnel, we will conduct rigorous screening and assessment exercise.

Guard Dogs

Has specific security personnel that work with guard dogs. Where occasion arises on sites, a trained dog's ability to detect by scent any unusual occurrence over a wide range, has proven to be a great advantage.

In active zones the dog's function is to act as a psychological deterrent when on view to the public and personnel. When there is a situation, the guard dog can have additional persuasive attributes that a normal guard lack.

Mobile Patrol

Fully equipped with state-of-the-art alarming system and tracking devices in our patrol cars, our distinctly marked Mobile vehicles can check on your premises both inside and outside business hours, providing the confidence and peace of mind require.

Once successfully tracked down a suspect, the tracking system will send a decoding back to our main control monitoring office for further investigation.

RANGE OF SERVICES

Security & Safety Consultation

When our officers return from site surveys, they will prepare a report which will be submitted to our panel advisors. Based on the report, we will present to our clients the recommendations on the necessary measures which are required for the location. These recommendations include equipment, security officers, logistic planning and budget strategies.

Central Monitoring System

Our control centre at headquarters provides close-circuit monitoring on every security system we have installed in clients premises every minute of the day. Our aim is to act immediately when a crisis arises. Whenever our system detects a crisis, our officers will take the necessary actions to respond to the situation, which include the following: Our officers will contact the relevant authorities to notify them of the crisis details and locations so that law enforcement help could be sent immediately.

24 -hour Telecontact Security

We have officers on duty at the telecontact centre in our headquarters to attend to any security matters every minute of the day. When we receive an alert on any of security system, our officers will contact you to check on the security status in the premise. This is done discreetly through pre-arranged secret communication plan such as usage of codes and signals. If threats are confirmed, a team of armed security officers will be dispatched to the premise within 30 minutes to attend to the situation.
